MORANDÉ

Pioneering Spirit

When Pablo Morandé founded Viña Morandé in 1996, he did it with a great vision for the future. Years earlier he was the first person to plant vines in the Casablanca Valley. Adopting this pioneering view, the winery created a wine range named "Aventuras" (meaning adventures). The purpose was to highlight the unknown diversity of Chilean terroirs.

La La Land
WINES

LA LA LAND ARE WINES TO EXPLORE. An exciting eclectic collection of new generation wines, La La Land wines are crafted from lesser known grape varieties which thrive in Australia's warmer climate. Flavourful, generous wines made with creative flair add a breath of fresh air to the sometimes-stuffy wine world.

Langmeil
BAROSSA

STORY BEHIND THE WINE... Speaking a local dialect known as 'Barossa-Deutsch', a blend of German and English that embodies the history of the district, one of Langmeil's growers, the late Wally Krieg didn't curse, just as his forebears didn't, but in the heat of the vintage was often heard to mutter... "Hangin' Snakes!"

Terroir driven, while practicing minimal intervention and minimal dosage, Champagne Drappier is a new wave producer keeping the Champagne dream alive.

MANCURA

guard of the andes

Mancura was born as a tribute to their roots, traditions and origins. Legend has it that Mancura, the Andean Condor, appears in the heights of the Andes bringing with him the sun that provides the strength, heat and energy that their valleys need. At dusk, and with its majestic flight, Mancura brings in the freshness of the sea, allowing us to enjoy one of the best conditions in the world to produce high-quality wines.

Thomas and Véronique Muré are the 12th generation of this Alsace winemaking family. All of Muré's own vineyards are farmed organically and biodynamically; no chemical fertilisers, herbicides or pesticides are used. Soil health and biodiversity are promoted through the use of grass cover between the vines.

CORRALILLO

Corralillo is the name of a very old wine cellar that used to be in El Rosario Valley, where wines of the ancient "País" grape were once made. To honor the tradition of our terroir, we chose the name Corralillo and its symbol that is typical of our labels. Corralillo and the symbol that is typical of our labels.

HENRI DE VILLAMONT

CUVERIE DE 1880

The estate in Savigny-lès-Beaune, in the heart of the Côte de Beaune, comprises buildings that were designed at the end of the 19th century, by an architect from Les Beaux Arts. 2400m<sup>2</sup> of vaulted cellars in this atypical construction, makes their wine house truly unique. Our philosophy is to respect the soil, in order to offer our customers powerful, elegant, and profound wines.
